

CENTER FOR FINANCIAL INCLUSION

Accelerating Economic Opportunity | Advancing Financial Wellness

The Center for Financial Inclusion (CFI) at the Greater Washington Urban League is a safe space that was created to help you improve your relationship with money and achieve financial wellness. Our goal is to help you accumulate wealth through resilience, stress reduction, and financial savvy. At the CFI you will find that we are a judgement free zone that incorporates a holistic approach to finances with a special emphasis on mindfulness and well-being. We are here to help you achieve your financial goals wherever you are in your financial journey.

OUR VISION: The Center for Financial Inclusion at the Greater Washington Urban League envisions a DC Metro Area where Blacks and other historically excluded populations are thriving with the capacity to build generational wealth unimpeded and unharmed by bias and structural discrimination.

OUR MISSION: Our mission for the Center for Financial Inclusion at the Greater Washington Urban League is to place our constituents on viable pathways to economic progress and facilitate community and generational wealth accumulation. Our duty is to put participants in the driver’s seat with the skills and mindfulness they need to make critical changes and choices in order to build sound financial futures.
